LOCAL

F. J. Gehring has moved into his branch store, on Bridge street.

Those who have not put up their stoves had best do so at once.

New Mexico has the finest climate in the world, and Las Vegas has the finest climate in New Mexico.

H. F. Davenport, of Chicago, is here to place the new fixtures in and arrange the interior of the new Harvey dining station.

Dr. F. H. Atkins has been confined to his home for several days with a severe attack of rheumatism. He is convalescent today.

Beautiful chrysanthemums of the feathered Japanese variety, attract the attention of all passers by in C. Hollingsworth's gardens.

A. P. Grzechowski was in from Puerto de Luna, yesterday, with 1,800 pounds of very fine apples, which he sold to Graaf & Moore.

Master Homer Wean met with quite a serious accident while at school, yesterday forenoon, by falling from the fence, spraining his ankle.

Wise & Hogsett have sold to Chas. Stevenson the A. L. Angell residence, corner of Fourth and Columbia street, the consideration being 2,100.

S. A. Oberg, father of Mrs. Eli Green, was arrested on the charge of insanity; but the physicians after examination, would not pronounce him a lunatic.

A ten-year-old son of Albino G. Gallegos was brought to town from the Gallegos ranch last night suffering from a broken arm. Thrown by a horse.

C. E. Perry and Malaquias Baca have been appointed a committee to audit the accounts of the collector's office, while it was in the charge of Felix Martinez.

Vincent Jones' saddle was stolen four weeks ago. The thief must have repented. Little Geo. Selsor discovered it in a sack yesterday in an alley near Mr. Jones' residence.

There will be a subscription dance at the Springs, on Tuesday evening, given by a number of young men of this city. The train will leave for the Springs at 8:15 p. m., and supper will be served at the Montezuma.

Jno. G. Wagner, the Douglas avenue hardware merchant, received today one of the largest and best safes ever brought to this city. Mr. Wagner is doing a large business and needs a large safe to accommodate his records.

The Eastern Star organization met last evening at the Masonic hall and initiated Geo. W. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Frink. Afterward the ladies gave a charming banquet in the handsomely appointed Masonic banquet hall at which forty guests were entertained. The Eastern Star is in a very flourishing condition. Mrs. John S. Clark is the worthy matron of the order and Rev. Geo Selby the worthy patron.

Postoffice Inspectors Fredericks and Thomas are in the city today on official business. They have been looking critically into the recent postoffice robbery at Wagon Mound, and while they are very reticent, it is learned from other sources that there are some rather ugly rumors afloat in this connection, and the behavior of some parties has been such as to arouse suspicions that may develop into something sensational ere many days.

Noble Berggren, of Waho, Neb., who shipped 10,000 sheep out of this Territory the other day via Las Vegas from a Valencia county ranch, was overhauled at Denver by Vice President M. W. Flournoy, of the First National bank of Albuquerque, and compelled to give a mortgage on the shipment to satisfy the bank for moneys advanced for the purchase of the sheep. Berggren is charged with having quietly driven the sheep to Las Vegas for shipment without notifying the bank of his movements.

The Spooner dramatic company gave the public a really delightful entertainment at the opera house last night. The Flower Girl was the play, and it was replete with healthful, clean fun, so full indeed, that even the staid and dignified society folk got to laughing, or weeping, with the plain people. Tonight will be given The Trial at Midnight, a sensational comedy drama depicting life in the silver mines of the west, the scene being laid in Black Canon, Colorado, a play written specially for the versatile Spooner family.
